

Oct. 13, 2004

ARMILUS RISING!!

Shalom all, I have long warned about what you are about to read. Biblical, Talmudic and Kabbalistic prophecies are all falling into place. I have long said that the coming GREAT WAR will not be between Israel and the Arabs but between Israel and Europe.

Indeed, it is Europe who instigates the Arabs against us. It is Europe who exported its anti-Semitism to the Arabs after WW11 in their new attempt to finish the final solution.

EUROPE IS GOG & MAGOG.

To see how this war will unfold and ultimately end, read your Bibles, and then purchase my tapes and these matters. Time is short and there remains much work to be done.

-----
www.haaretz.com
Last update - 18:19 13/10/2004

FOREIGN MINISTRY WARNS ISRAEL, EUROPE ON COLLISION COURSE

By Haaretz Service and the Associated Press

A secret report prepared by the Foreign Ministry warns that Israel's global standing could deteriorate in the coming decade and could even resemble the pariah status of apartheid South Africa.

According to the document, which was written in August by the ministry's Center for Political Research, Israel and Europe will find themselves on a collision course that will cause serious economic and diplomatic damage to Israel.

Israel could become increasingly isolated in the coming years if Europe becomes more influential, the Foreign Ministry report says.

"In extreme circumstances, this could put Israel on a collision course with the European Union. Such a collision course holds the risk of Israel losing international legitimacy and could lead to its isolation, in the manner of South Africa," according to the document.

"The EU could sharpen its expectation that Israel will comply with international norms ... and honor the authority of the United Nations and its agencies - an issue that has the potential of leading to friction," the analysts wrote.

The document says the EU is pushing to become a major global player in the next decade, and that as a result, the United States, Israel's main ally, could lose international influence.

In light of ongoing European criticism of Israeli policies in the West Bank and Gaza Strip, a more powerful Europe could weaken Israel's position.

The paper also examines various scenarios for the development of Israel's relationship with Europe and Russia.

Foreign Minister Silvan Shalom has repeatedly warned that Israel has to work to strengthen ties with Europe, which also accuses of pro-Palestinian bias, and has expressed concerns over a growing wave of anti-Semitism in parts of Europe.

The report says a new form of anti-Semitism is developing in Europe, one which denies Israel's legitimacy as a sovereign Jewish state.

EU officials in Brussels said that while the EU and Israel have sound relations in the areas of trade and scientific research, they have very definite differences of opinion over Middle East peacemaking.

They also said the EU is seeking more of a say.

"Regarding the Middle East peace process and our relations with Israel and the Palestinians, there is no doubt that the role of the EU has increased," said Christina Gallach, a spokeswoman for EU foreign policy chief Javier Solana.

"We have had difficult moments [with Israel] when we responded to things like the West Bank wall and now what is happening in Gaza," Gallach said, referring to the separation fence in the West Bank and the ongoing major military offensive in northern Gaza.

Europe fiercely objects to the route of the fence, and EU foreign ministers called this week for the Israel Defense Forces to withdraw from the northern Strip.

Gallach said the Israeli government wants to broaden the relationship with Europe, without giving the EU a bigger role in resolving the conflict.

"The situation is not easy but we have a lot of investment, especially in Europe, that is important to all of us," Foreign Ministry director-general Ron Prushor told Army Radio on Wednesday.

"When it comes to our economy, which is geared towards developing markets, we are talking about a scope of trade totaling $22 billion."

COMMENTARY

Israel will bend over backwards to appease European demands, but like with Hitler, European demands will continue to grow more and more unreasonable and intolerable.

The US will not be able to stand against European pressure; they will not be able to shield Israel from European wrath forever. See how even now Europe is trying to manipulate the present American Presidential elections. They so desperately want John Kerry in office because they know he is a man they can control, unlike President Bush who stands up for American interests, and not for European ones.

Yet, the US will not be able to stand detached from Europe for long. This is merely the political and economic reality of the day. I have long warned that inevitably America's power in the world is destined to wane under the continued threat of terror. Europe will continue to rise and with it will rise its intolerance and hatred of anything Jewish (which they will say is just anti-Zionism).

European arrogance grows. But fear not, this is all G-d's plan! It is the Divine way of preparing the calf for the slaughter, and it couldn't happen to a nicer bunch of guys.

It is long ago time for all Jews to leave all of Europe. Those who stay will ultimately meet the fate of those who stayed the last time. This will not come about for a little while yet, but come about it will.

Our Sages says, "Who is wise, the one who sees what is coming." Open your eyes and see, before it is too late.

Am Yisrael Hai, Eretz Yisrael Hai, Ohd Avinu Hai.