

Copyright © 2011 by Ariel Bar Tzadok.

Copyright © 2011

Biblical Defense

The Great Battle & How We Must Fight It

by Ariel Bar Tzadok

This material is the intellectual property of Ariel Bar Tzadok and all copies of it are subject to financial compensation.

This material is the intellectual property of Ariel Bar Tzadok and all copies of it are subject to financial compensation.

How is it possible that according to the law of cause and effect, relationships between things are fixed and final, yet, we see that from time to time, a random element introduces itself and cause and effect seem to become unrelated? How is it possible that natural law, as we understand it, can be overrode by some higher, seemingly random force? Does the existence of a higher force or a random element signify also the existence of a supernatural realm above and beyond the natural? How are we to ascertain the differences or the boundaries between what we call the natural and the supernatural?

In order to answer these questions, we must begin by admitting that not only can we not answer these questions with any semblance of simplicity, at a certain level, we cannot answer these questions at all. While human knowledge has expanded tremendously over the last century or two, nevertheless, in spite of what some might think, we are far from knowing everything, or even close to knowing almost everything, about ourselves, our reality and about the true nature of life here on the planet of our present habitation.

We all look at the problems facing us in society today. Many of us feel how deeply things have gone wrong. Society and civilization itself seems to have gone crazy. Sane people are considered crazy and the crazy are considered sane. Moral people are now condemned as being immoral and the immoral are praised for their morality. People are becoming desperate, seeking solutions, but none seem to be forthcoming. Desperate people are beginning to think up desperate solutions, but in a crazy world, rational solutions, however desperate, simply cannot and will not work. Many of us sense the depths of the problems we face, but unless we delve into the source of the problem, we will never discover its solution.

We do not have all the answers. We do not have all the information we need in order to discover all the hidden truths. Yet, if we allow this excuse to limit us, then we will forever remain in ignorance and the slavery that ignorance brings. The problems that we face in our natural societies have their supernatural causes. Yet, just because we call something today supernatural does not mean that it really is. It just means that we have not as yet fathomed the yet unknown natural truths underlying it.

The natural world and what we today call the supernatural intersect at many different points. Most are not aware of this. Even those who are aware of this reality still understand little about it. Ignorance is not bliss, it is death. Our lack of knowledge and experience keeps us enslaved.

to the author. The author's rights to the author.

will be strictly enforced.

will be strictly enforced.

It is because we are enslaved that our society is being transformed from being the land of the free and home of the brave into the land of the enslaved and home of the deprived.

Unless we address the source of the problem, the natural will be replaced with the unnatural, the normal with the crazy and what's right will be replaced by what's wrong. This is already happening, but it is not yet final. We can make a change. We can make a difference. But in order to do so, we have work to do.

We say that modern social, political and economic problems stem from a spiritual source. This, they do. Yet, the spiritual source is not just some psychological or philosophical mumbo-jumbo. The spiritual source is a real, potent and dangerous source that inhabits this Earth, but is not of it.

The purpose of the dark spiritual source behind all human corruption is simple, it desires to enslave humanity and this planet and to use their God-given wealth and abundance for its own nefarious purposes.

In the Ten Commandments, God commanded us to be free, these other so-called spiritual forces seeks to undo the Commandments, to undo the Will of God and to enslave us all.

Yet, we must remember, there is nothing supernatural about the spiritual. Neither is the spiritual mere psychological or philosophical mumbo-jumbo. Beliefs of this nature have been implanted in the minds of humanity in order to deceive us, misguide us and to enslave us unknowingly.

The forces of evil that seek our corruption and enslavement are real and actual entities. They exist in both their home dimension and in ours. They have been here on Earth for a very long time and even the Bible records their original arrival in Genesis 6. These fallen sons of God were not wiped out by the Flood. They took refuge in a secret place and have been working to corrupt and enslave humanity ever since. Their plans now are almost at the stage of final fruition, where they will achieve that which they have long desired and planned for.

Yet, God is great and God is good. Heaven has already given us the instructions we need how to overcome these nefarious fallen ones. All we need to know is in the Holy Bible, in the words of the Torah, the Prophets and the Sacred Writings. Learning from these sacred texts, we can extract all the weapons of wisdom and war that any of us might ever need.

Now, God has His holy plans why He is allowing to happen what is happening. We will not be able to thwart the plan of God. It is not our job or our goal to reform and redeem the entire planet. This God will do Himself when He sends to Earth our long awaited blessed Messiah. Yet, while we cannot redeem the whole world, we can indeed redeem ourselves and work effortlessly to share God's redemptive power and message of freedom with any and all who are willing to listen and embrace it.

Living right is our goal. Teaching others how to live right, leading by example and not by word alone is the true definition of both righteousness and faith. And as the prophet so long ago said, "the righteous will live by his faith."

At this time, we must devote ourselves to Biblical teachings. Yet, we must not allow our Bible studies to be misguided and watered-down into lessons of mere morals, psychology and philosophy. No, we must come to the Bible and read it anew, even as did they did in ancient days, in the days of the Temple, in the days when the ancient righteous walked the halls of Qumran and sought God as did the prophets in the isolation of the desert.

These ancient pious ones knew the secrets of the fallen ones and recognized their powers and technologies. They recognized that as supernatural as they appeared, they were nothing to be feared. The ancient ones saw through the fallen ones and taught us how to expose them, combat them and to overcome them. The ancient ones put these secrets of warfare into every single page and story in the Bible.

In future lessons then, we must turn to Scripture, back to the beginning and reveal the ancient teachings and teach the righteous how to use their powers to emancipate themselves from the nefarious and deceptive forces that seek to control their minds and thus direct their lives.

It is time to let freedom ring and to reclaim our lost heritage. We are all sacred souls, created in the Divine Image and destined, and even commanded to be free. Let us begin together our walk towards freedom and independence. Let us wage war and fight the good fight against the evils that are destroying our society and devouring us.

The Holy Bible contains simple, yet profound lessons that open our eyes to the truths of the parallel world that surrounds us. The secret, sacred truths are not hidden in codes. No one needs any kind of advanced skills to learn them. All one needs is to return to simplicity, to open one's heart and to turn off one's mind of doubts. We will learn how to see and experience. We do not need theology or doctrine.

We will stand together as a gathering of righteous souls. We will stand united, or divided, we will fall. The choice is ours. Action is required, as is discipline and commitment. As it was said long ago, "in accordance to the effort, will be the reward."

It is now time to act for God for they seek to make void His Word. We will expose them, but we must also be ready to battle them. For once evil knows that we recognize them, they will seek to silence us and to enslave us anew. Courage is needed. Faith and determination will get us through. In future lessons, we will learn more, page by page as we travel through Scripture to extract the sacred ancient truths to combat and defeat the forces that seek our enslavement and detachment from God.