

Segulah for Prosperity

From Sefer Zekhira
in the name of Sefer Shimushei Tehilim

Translated by HaRav Ariel Bar Tzadok
Copyright © 2009 by Ariel Bar Tzadok. All rights reserved.
www.KosherTorah.com

I have found it written that for prosperity one should recite these Psalms (with the Holy Names that come forth from them) and one's ways and the work of one's hands in business shall prosper.

Recite Psalm 63 and the holy Name associated with it is YAH (Yod Hey). Yod from the words V'HaMelekh Yismah (and the king shall rejoice, verse 12) and Hey from the word YeHuda (Judah in verse 1). After reciting the Psalm, say,

"May it be Your Will HaShem our G-d and G-d of our fathers that by the power of the great, powerful and awesome Name YAH that you send me blessing in the work of my hands; prosper my ways and straighten my path; fulfill all my requests of good and to do my what ask this day. Amen Amen Amen Selah Selah Selah."

Recite Psalm 57 with its Name Hhay (Het, Yod, pronounced Hay, the Hebrew word for life). Hhet from the word Haneni (be gracious to me, verse 2; Yod from the word EloHYm (G-d in verse 6) and then again recite the prayer above.

"May it be Your Will HaShem our G-d and G-d of our fathers that by the power of the great, powerful and awesome Name Hhay that you send me blessing in the work of my hands; prosper my ways and straighten my path; fulfill all my requests of good and to do my what ask this day. Amen Amen Amen Selah Selah Selah."