

A Message to all Bible Believers from R. Ariel B. Tzadok

*Please know and understand:
Judaism and Christianity are different religions.*

*Christians embrace ideas and beliefs
that are totally foreign and absent
from the Jewish Bible, and the Jewish religion.*

*Yet, unlike Christianity,
Judaism does not seek to prove others wrong.
Judaism does not seek to condemn those different from ourselves.*

*We proclaim that no one is cut off from God.
Therefore, there is no need for an intermediary
to reconnect a connection
that has never been broken and can never be broken!*

*We do not need salvation for the sake of the afterlife.
There is nothing to be saved from!
We do not condemn non-believers
to a Hell, which really does not exist*

*We focus on life here on Earth.
We seek to serve God in everything, and in every way.
This is the Jewish Way (halakha).*

*We do not need to prove that our way is right and that your way is wrong!
Christianity may be absolutist, but Judaism is not.*

This is why I can embrace my Christian brethren who themselves embrace the values and morals of our Torah.

*I also understand why many of my Christian brethren
may be convinced that I am going to Hell forever simply because I do not embrace their beliefs.*

*What can I say?
The resentment and rejection of the Jewish religion,
and especially towards Jewish rabbis
runs very deep in the beliefs of many Christians.
I cannot change the hatred festering in the closed heart!*

*Please understand: Christianity is not a "fulfilled" Judaism,
and no number of so-called "Messianics"
can make it so!*

*I say, let Christians be Christians,
and may God bless them
to be moral and righteous individuals.*

*Let Jews be Jews, and may God bless us to observe our Torah, our Mitzvot,
and to follow in the path of our ancient Sages.*

*True, the two paths are not the same!
But we do have a common code of morals and values
that unite us.*

*So, please!
Let us focus on what unites us,
instead of debating what divides us!*

*My Christian brethren, thank you for praying for my soul,
but please stop trying to justify your faith to me.*

*You must accept that we Jews were here first,
and that our embrace of Torah came long before your revamping of our ancient, sacred beliefs.*

*Faith is one thing,
but well sought-out knowledge is even stronger.*

*Keep studying, keep learning!
This is the Torah way,
a way endorsed by the Sages of Israel,
and most likely even endorsed
by the historical Jesus,
who was, after all, a teacher of Torah,
and not a preacher of Christianity.*

*Let us work together towards common goals.
I believe that this is the best way that we can serve and worship God.
Unity and peace are the best way to shine the Divine Light!*

*Shalom to all,
